

Role: Consultant IT Expert – Web Development and UI/UX Developer

- Provide support in development of in-house applications based on internal and external stakeholders needs to bring transparency and organizational efficiency.
- Design and develop web interfaces with a strong focus on usability and accessibility.
- Ensure best practices in front-end and back-end development.
- Optimize performance and responsiveness of web applications.
- Act as the primary technical resource liaison between NEECA and development partners.
- Review their deliverables to ensure they meet technical, design, and business requirements.
- Provide feedback, request modifications, and ensure alignment with organization's goals.
- Track project progress, identify roadblocks, and report updates to stakeholders.
- Ensure consistency in design, branding, and user experience across platforms.
- Assist in the development, deployment, and maintenance of IT applications, including apps and software, to ensure seamless operations.
- Collaborate with stakeholders to gather requirements, manage changes, and prioritize IT solutions, ensuring integration with existing systems for seamless functionality.
- To support the management on cross functional, and enterprise IT and business solutions, and providing expertise on software development.
- Work with internal teams to gather requirements and translate them into actionable development tasks.
- Work with IT professionals within team to achieve project goals, ensuring alignment with organizational objectives.
- Conduct regular audits, implement updates to address vulnerabilities, and improve system efficiency.
- Ensure the quality, completeness, and functional integrity of solutions or applications developed in-house or by third-party vendors for the program, through testing, validation, and compliance with technical and business requirements.
- Prepare performance reports on IT applications, websites, and social media platforms, and maintain documentation of processes, updates, and best practices.

Key Skills and Expertise

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in IT, Software and Computer Science or a related field.
- 5+ experience in web development (PHP/Laravel preferred).
- Expertise in UI/UX design principles.
- Expertise in Front-end Technologies like React, Vue, JavaScript, Bootstrap, HTML, CSS, and SCSS, follow the best practices
- Experience with working with third-party development teams.
- Ability to review and provide feedback on external code and design work.
- Good communication and stakeholder management skills.